PROFESSOR KOFI QUASHIGAH

SUMMARY

Prof. Kofi Quashigah is an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Ghana and Dean of the Faculty. His teaching and research interests include Constitutional Law, Human Rights, International Humanitarian Law, Jurisprudence, Governance, Elections Law and Alternative Dispute Resolution.

He was a Fulbright Scholar at the Harvard Human Rights Program between 2001/2002 and a McArthur Foundation Visiting Scholar at the University of Wisconsin, USA in 1992.

He was adjudged and honoured as the 2005 Best Teacher in the Humanities in the University of Ghana.

Prof. Quashigah was the brain behind the design and implementation of the newly introduced LL.M in International Law & International Humanitarian Law Programme of the Faculty. He was equally instrumental in negotiating the inclusion of the Faculty in the LL.M in Human Rights and Democratization in Africa; a programme in which five other Universities are partners.

In collaboration with Prof. Obiora Okafor of the Osgode Hall, Law School, Canada, he promoted and edited the classical book titled “Legitimate Governance in Africa,” published by Kluwer Publishers in 1999.

He is currently spearheading the production of the first issue of the “Annual Survey of Ghana Law.” This is a project that is intended to revolutionize the approach to legal research in Ghana.

He has on several occasions selected, trained and led the University of Ghana team to several of the Annual All Africa Human Rights Moot Court Competition. Several honours were won thus creating a special niche for the Faculty of Law of the University of Ghana among Faculties of Law in Africa.

Prof. Quashigah is the Director of the Human Rights Centre of the Faculty of Law, University of Ghana. He had undertaken a number of Consultancies for UNICEF and others; these include, UNICEF/Ministry of Education, consultancy work on the Legal Framework For The Right To Pre-Tertiary Education In Ghana – 2001; for UNICEF – Ghana, - he undertook a study on “Legislative Reform Initiatives, Institutional Development and Policy Changes in Favour of Children: Ghana National Study.” – June/July 2004; Consultant to National Governance Programme (under the UNDP Consolidating Democratic Governance Programme) – he was contracted to write a comprehensive but concise assessment of the Human Rights environment to be integrated into the Governance Component of the Country Assessment on Ghana – June 2004;

Research into HIV in Ghana for Centre for Human Rights, University of Pretoria, South Africa – 2005; Consultant assisting Ministry of Education in the Drafting of a Bill for a new Education Law for Ghana – 2005.

He has attended several ADR training sessions in Ghana and also visited the Harvard Negotiation Program and the Harvard Mediation Program. He has been involved in the teaching of ADR to various groups in Ghana. He had co-ordinated the World Bank Institute Distance Learning Training in ADR - 2005.

He had participated in a training session on Conflict Resolution at the Fifth Annual International Seminar on Arms Control & Disarmament – 10th - 23rd September, 1997 at the Baker Institute, Juniata College, Williamsburg, Pennsylvania, USA.

Prof. Quashigah was the Associate Dean (Vice Dean) of the Faculty of Law of the University of Nigeria between 1991 and 1993.

He had undergone extensive training in Alternative Dispute Resolution Skills and also Labour Management techniques. These are skills required for effective leadership. Prof. Quashigah is a qualified Mediator and teaches and practices mediation.

Between January/February 2005 he was the Ghana country Facilitator for a World Bank Institute Distance Learning Course on Alternative Dispute Resolution for Ghana and Nigeria. He also was the Facilitator for the Workshop on the Alternative Dispute Resolution Bill of Ghana held on 2nd and 3rd September 2005. Again from 22nd – 25th November 2005 he was the Ghana Facilitator of the International Development Law Organization (IDLO) Distance Learning Course on Strategic Litigation/Public Interest Litigation.

He is the incumbent President of the Ghana Association of Certified Mediators and Arbitrators.

He is also the Co-ordinator of the ADR Coalition of Ghana. The Coalition is made up of institutional representation from the Judiciary, the Ghana Bar Association, the Faculty of Law of the University of Ghana, the Ghana Arbitration Centre and the Ghana Association of Certified Mediators and Arbitrators.

He is into citrus farming on part-time basis and even then was able to manage the farm to be adjudged the best citrus farmer in Akwapim North District for 2006.

He was instrumental in the Faculty of Law winning Four TALIF awards for projects within the Faculty.

He had assisted the ADR Coalition – Ghana in securing funding from the UNDP. The UNDP was able to support the production of a Handbook on ADR in Ghana through the Coalition.

He was very instrumental in the raising of funds for the organization of the 2000 All Africa Human Rights Moot Court Competition hosted by the Faculty of Law of the University of Ghana.
